

Diversity

Evangel University encourages students to understand, appreciate, and celebrate ethnic and cultural differences. Recognizing the principles of Scripture and the rich contribution that each culture can make to campus life, the University supports the biblical concept of multiculturalism and diversity (Galatians 3:28, Revelation 7:9) in which all people participate equally in the Kingdom of God.