

PSYC 236: Psychology of Adulthood

Introduces adult development and the aging process. Topics include physical, intellectual, emotional, social, personality, and spiritual processes associated with adulthood; how to anticipate, prepare for, and support the dying and bereaved.

Credits: 3

Program: Psychology