

SWK 298: Field Observation in Human Services

Provides students exposure to human services agencies. Students engage in observation, job shadowing, and supervised learning experiences. Topics include how these agencies function, how the populations are served, and the personal and social problems that agencies may address. A minimum of 50 clock hours at the human service agency is required for each credit hour.

Credits: 1-3

Prerequisites:

Permission of the program coordinator and/ or department chair.

Program: Social Work