

SWK 354: Social Policy I

Explores the American social welfare system and related fields of practice. Topics include major social welfare policies from various perspectives considering current political and economic trends; social work values and ethics related to the social welfare system with a focus on at-risk populations and the impact of social economic justice issues; and the role of the church within the social welfare system.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

Junior standing.

Program: Social Work