

ANTH 231: Introduction to Anthropology

Introduces basic concepts of anthropology. Topics include a survey of its sub-disciplines such as ethnology, social anthropology, culture dynamics, culture and personality, anthropological linguistics, prehistoric man, physical anthropology, and the concept of race. This course also meets and Core Curriculum requirements for the non-laboratory B.S. science component.

Credits: 3

Program: Anthropology