

MILS 225: Basic Military Science Practicum

Four-week, training intensive course conducted at Fort Knox, KY. Topics include leadership development, orienteering, physical conditioning, small unit tactics and weapons instruction. Requires active participation by all students. Compensation for travel, lodging, and food.

Credits: 5

Prerequisites:

Permission of the professor.

Program: Military Science