

ACCT 394: Free Enterprise

Provides application opportunities to students about small business operations models including analysis and practice of financial, management, and marketing principles through business partnerships.

Credits: 0.5

Program: Accounting