

BUED 354: Practicum in Middle School Subject Area

Provides students with observation and participation in the middle school, grades 5-9, with both non-instructional and limited instructional responsibilities. This course also provides students with a sequence of experiences in a variety of basic business teaching methods and skills such as questioning techniques, reinforcement, stimulus variation, use of illustrations and examples, demonstrations, and disciplinary procedures.

Credits: 1

Program: Business Education