

MGMT 343: Human Resource Management

Explains principles and practices of managing human resources. Topics include labor sources, selection and placement of personnel, workers' environment, compensation, training, promotion, health and safety, benefit plans, and relations between management and employees.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

Junior standing or MGMT 349.

Program: Business Management