

EDUC 228: Instructional Strategies and Techniques in Secondary Content

Provides an overview of the secondary instructional process. Emphasis is placed on using instructional strategies to create and facilitate effective and engaging experiences for diverse learners. The course will be differentiated to address specific content area specialties. Admission to teacher education program required.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

EDUC 220 and EDUC 225.

Co-Requisites:

EDUC 397.

Program: Education