

EDUC 344: Utilizing Family and Community Resources

Examines various types of community agencies that provide services for children with physical, emotional, social, and educational needs. Training and practice in developing interaction skills with families and service delivery systems are included.

Credits: 2

Prerequisites:

EDUC 220 and EDUC 225.

Program: Education

Semester Offered:

Offered fall semester only