

ARTP 215: Introduction to Photography

Introduces basic 35mm film and digital photography. Topics include camera technology, features, settings, basic composition, exposure, lighting, color, and elementary darkroom printing techniques. Covers Photoshop and related software for correcting exposure, color and composition. This course includes special fees.

Credits: 3

Program: Photography (Art)