

ARTP 419: Documentary Photography

Provides principles and techniques of artistically capturing and presenting photos acquired from real-world subject matter. Explores creative photographic methods used in nature, documentary, and journalistic photographic situations. Also covers the ethics of photo editing in dealing with real subject matter used for documentary or journalism. This course includes special fees.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

ARTP 215 or COPH 215.

Program: Photography (Art)