

ENGL 498C: Practicum/Internship

Provides students with writing, tutoring, or other English-related vocational training. Students complete 37 hours of on-the-job training for each credit hour scheduled during a fall or spring semester. Summer internships require 50 on-the-job training hours per credit hour. More details about the internship application, purpose, and expectations are in the Humanities Department Internship Manual.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

Permission of the English professor overseeing the internship.

Program: English