

THTR 243: Acting I with Lab

Introduces the basic skills of acting; the development of imagination, self-awareness, body control and voice; the techniques of stage movement; textual analysis; creation of character, and rehearsal expectations through individual and group exercises, improvisations, monologues, and scene studies. Previous theatre study NOT required.

Credits: 3

Program: Theatre