

EXER 345: Research Methods

Focuses on analysis of peer reviewed research literature and learn different research techniques and models that implemented during their own research projects. Explains how to extrapolate intelligently information from research, as applied in a clinical setting.

Credits: 3

Program: Exercise Science