

PHED 338: Techniques of Individual Activities

Discusses and provides opportunities to apply skills, techniques, and teaching progression of the individual and dual sports most often included in a physical education program and used as lifetime recreational activities. Prerequisite for EDUC 497.

Credits: 3

Program: Physical Education