

PHED 456: Adapted Physical Education

Explains the organization and administration of individual physical education programs for special-needs students, modifications of methods and evaluations for students with specific disabilities and the culturally disadvantaged student.

Credits: 3

Program: Physical Education