

VOIC 417: Contemporary Voice Class

Discusses methods associated with vocal techniques used in contemporary singing in worship settings. Topics include correct vocal technique applied to contemporary singing, stylistic applications, peer observation and review, and individual performance presentations. Course substitution for Contemporary Church Voice.

Credits: 2

Prerequisites:

Senior music major only.

Program: Music Voice