

CPSC 325: Data Communications

Explores data communications, including directly connected devices, local and wide area networks, communication protocols and standards, and network security.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

Junior or senior standing.

Program: Computer Science