

BIBL 350: Geography of Israel

Examines the physical geography of Israel. Topics include topography, natural regional divisions, major cities and roadways, neighbors, defenses, climate, crops, rainfall, soil-types, produce, and demographics to help develop awareness of dynamics biblical authors assume their readers already know. Uses state of the art digitized satellite and video imagery to create a virtual Israel every class period.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

BIBL 115 or BIBL 116.

Program: Biblical Studies