

BEHA 233: Introduction to Behavioral Health

Introduces the many facets of behavioral health as a profession. Topics include philosophy, historical development, and major concepts of behavioral health, special populations, integration of professional practice with a Christian perspective.

Credits: 3

Program: Undergraduate