

BEHA 499: Professional Ethics

Provides a summary of the theory and skills presented in the Behavioral Health program. Topics include critical information regarding work in a behavioral health organization and next steps in developing a career in the field; themes in contemporary professional ethics that are likely to arise for a behavioral health practitioner.

Credits: 3

Program: Undergraduate