

MUSA 423: Administration in Creative Arts Worship

Discusses the ministerial purposes, principles and methodology of each musical unit commonly found in the local church program. Topics include procedures for the successful management of the musical ministries of children, youth, and adults from the standpoint of the small, medium, and large congregation, staff relationships, responsibilities, and privileges.

Credits: 3

Program: Undergraduate