

COU 611: Intelligence Testing

Provides supervised practice and training in the administration, scoring, interpretation, and reporting of individual intelligence testing in school settings, specifically the Weschler Individual Assessment and the Stanford Binet (SB-V). This course is an elective for school counselors but meets one requirement for the School Psychological Examiner's Certificate.

Credits: 3

Program: Counseling