

COU 651: Addiction Counseling

Introduces the multiple etiologies of addiction development. Topics include assessment, intervention, and relapse prevention for chemical and behavioral addictions; understanding, assessing and treating addictive behaviors within a systems context of family, friends, community, and culture; the role of a Christian worldview.

Credits: 3

Program: Counseling