

EDL 515: Administration of Special Programs

Provides a broad overview of the essential elements of special education, guidance and counseling, activity and other student support programs as outlined by the E.L.C.C. and T.S.L.L.C. standards as well as the EAD Knowledge Base. This course is designed as an entrance level course for the study of student personnel programs.

Credits: 3

Program: Educational Leadership