

EDU 512: Special Education- Consulting with Parents and Teachers

Explores counseling techniques, current issues, trends, and problems in all areas of exceptionalities, including the gifted and at-risk populations. Topics include communication skills with exceptional children and their families and are determined by current legislative initiatives and school trends.

Credits: 2

Program: Education