

BTH 529: Foundations of Biblical Theology

Introduces biblical theology covering methodology, history, basic issues and the foundational content of the field. Correlation between biblical and systematic theology is discussed. The course includes the inspiration and authority of the scriptures and the unity of the biblical revelation as well as its diversity.

Credits: 3

Program: Biblical Theology (AGTS)