

BTH 532: New Testament Theology

Examines New Testament theology in terms of its historical and social environment. Various approaches or emphases may be taken, depending on the instructor and/or purpose of the class. Generally, the major doctrinal themes of the New Testament are covered. Attention is given to Pentecostal and Charismatic issues.

Credits: 3

Program: Biblical Theology (AGTS)