

BTH 632: Biblical Theology of Signs and Wonders

Analyzes signs and wonders in the Scriptures with reference to the various words which express these phenomena and the cultural contexts that shaped the worldviews of biblical authors and their opponents. Related issues of contemporary interest and relevance (e.g., their relationship to faith and spiritual warfare) will also be considered and the scriptural evidence examined. Cross-listed with PCS 632.

Credits: 3

Program: Biblical Theology (AGTS)