

MCC 536: World Religions and the Uniqueness of the Christian Faith

Introduces the world's major living religions from a missiological perspective. The religions are studied with a view to understanding them historically and theologically. The missiological approach to other religions for effective communication of the Gospel is emphasized.

Credits: 3

Program: Missions Communication and Culture (AGTS)