

MCC 537: Folk Religion

Explores differences between formal premises and everyday practices in world religions, with a focus on analyzing religious systems. Selected groups are considered to illustrate the analytical methodology. Strategies for understanding the animistic worldview to relate the Gospel to folk religion adherents are examined.

Credits: 3

Program: Missions Communication and Culture (AGTS)