

MCC 631: Culture, Gender and Intercultural Ministry

Examines God's purpose in creating humans as female and male and allow scriptures to critique one's own cultural gender biases. Students will practice ethnographic research methods that prepare them to discover culture through the lens of gender. They will also develop spiritual disciplines that will enhance their lives and intercultural ministry. Cross-listed with PTH 631 and THE 631.

Credits: 3

Program: Missions Communication and Culture (AGTS)