

MCC 632: Area Studies Seminars

Explores culture, religious background, historical development and present situations as these relate to spreading the Gospel and the development of the Church: Africa, Asia Pacific, Eurasia, Latin America and Caribbean, and contemporary Native American societies. The student may take more than one area study for credit.

Credits: 3

Program: Missions Communication and Culture (AGTS)