

MHT 635: Pentecostal Theology of Leadership Development

Examines theological issues related to indigenous church leadership development from a Pentecostal perspective with special attention to spiritual formation, moral issues and social/organizational structures in a missional context.

Credits: 3

Program: Missions History and Theology (AGTS)