

PTH 530: Establishing New Churches

Studies the principles and procedures for establishing new churches and investigates the biblical basis for and the spiritual, social and cultural dynamics of establishing new congregations. Special attention is given to the role of the Holy Spirit, thorough planning and effective leadership.

Credits: 3

Program: Practical Theology (AGTS)