

PTH 610: Psychological Disorders and Addictive Behaviors

Covers the most common psychological disorders seen in ministry with special emphasis on understanding and working with addictive behaviors within family systems and community contexts. Attention is given to preventive strategies with an emphasis on faith-based recovery programs. The referral process and ethical limitation and parameters of pastoral care will be incorporated.

Credits: 3

Program: Practical Theology (AGTS)