

BTH 931: Global Hermeneutical Models

Investigates the hermeneutical paradigms, and their implications for biblical exegesis and theology, of various cultures and traditions in the majority world. Focus is given to the contextual theology that results from these models. The model and culture may vary at the discretion of the instructor.

Credits: 4

Program: Biblical Theology (PhD BTH)