

French Education Major

The prospective French Education student must (a) earn a major in a related field and (b) in addition to FREN 336, complete the Professional Requirements for Secondary Education listed in the Education Department requirements.

K-12 school teaching candidates are required to complete the General Education (core curriculum) requirements, Secondary Education Professional requirements, and Field and Clinical Experience courses.

A student may also plan an interdisciplinary program. Such programs require two concentrations or one concentration and two minors. Concentrations that work well with a foreign language are English, History, Art, or another foreign language.

Evangel University, French Education graduates are prepared for certification within the State of Missouri. Requirements may differ from state to state. Consult professional requirements within a state of planned practice.
