

Associate of Arts in General Education

The Associate of Arts in General Studies requires 60 credit hours. The Associate of Arts degree can serve as preparation to enter one of the Adult Studies programs, or it may serve as a terminal degree. Classes meet online, which enables students to maintain full-time employment while attending the University full time.

Program: General Studies (COL)

Type: Associate of Arts

Required Courses

Required Courses

Item #	Title	Credits
ENGA 110	Composition and Grammar for the Professional	3
BIBA 111	Essential Christianity	3
BIBA 125	Themes in the Old Testament	3
BIBA 126	Themes in the New Testament	3
ENGA 121	Writing for the Professional	3
GNSA 200	Adult Studies Seminar	3
SOCA 332	Culture and Diversity	3

Electives

Electives

- 11-12 credits in Humanities from two of the following areas: English Literature, Fine Arts, Communication, or Philosophy;
- 8-9 credits in Behavioral or Social Science;
- 7 credits in Natural Science;
- 6 credits of B.S courses (Stats and Natural Science, Computer Science, or Geography);
- 5-7 elective credits.

Total credits:

60