

ENGA 121: Writing for the Professional

Focuses on developing writing skills for professional activities with an emphasis on academic conventions, library use, and documentation of sources in APA style, including avoidance of plagiarism. Additional emphasis on writing in the professional setting, including professional correspondence, reports, proposals, and other appropriate tasks. Students must pass the Evangel University English Writing Proficiency exam in order to pass the course.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites or Corequisites:

Grade of C- or above in ENGA 110.

Program: Undergraduate