

PTH 971: Strategic Planning: Equipping Christian Strategists with Effective Foresight

Develops effective strategists through synthesizing and applying biblical-theological models with strategic management principles for organizations. Emphasizes strategic planning best practices with scriptural authority and wisdom and building an effective framework of Spirit-led discernment and strategy.

Credits: 3

Program: Practical Theology (DMin)