

COU 511: Residency II

Brings cohort members together for face-to-face participation in the Group Counseling Lab to foster ongoing cohort connection. Clinical Mental Health students will have in-person learning for their Couple and Family Counseling Course while School Counseling students will participate face-to-face in the School Counseling curriculum course. Also provides an overview of all second year courses.

Credits: 0

Program: Counseling