

EDL 756: Student Development in Higher Education

Explores research-based support services for the university student. Topics include student development theory, retention, housing, commuter services, understanding diverse populations, public safety, community life, and health and wellness services.

Credits: 3

Program: Doctor of Education