

HON 200: Honors Seminar

This course introduces the students to the core principles of the EU Scholars Honors Program. Students will focus on character development, intellectual pursuits, and practical learning opportunities. While building relationships among peers, mentors and members of academic departments, students will continue developing effective habits of lifelong learning and cultivating a personal Christian worldview for life decisions.

Prerequisites:

Membership in Scholars Program.

Program: Honors