

ACCT 420: Financial Reporting and Analysis

Intended to help students master financial statement analysis by analyzing the financial statement of real-world companies. Topics include using a variety of tools and ratios to analyze risk and profitability, preparing forecasted financial statements, and translating foreign financial statements.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

ACCT 239, 332, and 315.

Program: Accounting