

EXRA 476: Cardiovascular Functions

Provides students with the basic concepts of cardiac and pulmonary rehabilitation programs and the knowledge and skills needed to design, implement, and assess progress of rehabilitation programs to return individuals to a healthy state, full functional fitness, or athletic performance.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

BIOA 211 and EXRA 422.

Program: Undergraduate