

PHSA 110: Foundations of Physics

Explores an introduction to college-level physics. Topics include the fundamental principles of motion, electricity and magnetism, work and energy, and wave motion and its relationship to sound and light. May be taken with a 1-credit laboratory component. May be used to meet the General Education requirements.

Credits: 3

Program: Undergraduate