

GNST 102: Academic Success

Assists students with sharpening their academic skills focusing on study skills development, time management, and reflective self-assessment. Students are encouraged to develop a positive approach to academics, discover and develop their unique personal qualities, and gain confidence in their ability to manage the demands of university life.

Credits: 1

Program: General Studies